WHO: Bailee Madison stars as 'Sally Hurst' (opposite Katie Holmes and Guy Pearce) in Guillermo Del Toro's highly anticipated thriller "Don't Be Afraid Of The Dark."

Bailee joined the cast of Disney's "Wizards of Waverly Place" for the show's fourth and final season, playing a 10-year-old wizard named 'Maxine' and recently starred as 'Maggie,' Jennifer Aniston's daughter in Columbia Pictures' comedy "Just Go With It" with Adam Sandler.

This talented young actress has worked with a number of the industry's biggest stars in a variety of diverse and challenging roles. She won rave reviews and a Critics Choice Movie Award nomination for her powerful work on "Brothers" opposite Tobey Maguire, Natalie Portman, and Jake Gyllenhaal and was recently seen as the young 'Betty Ann Waters' in Fox Searchlight's "Conviction" (with Hilary Swank). Her upcoming feature films include "Dance Of The Mirlitons" Opposite Kristen Bell and just wrapped production in Chicago on a pilot for FX called "Powers."

"Don't Be Afraid Of The Dark" - - Sally Hurst (Bailee Madison), a lonely, withdrawn child, has just arrived in Rhode Island to live with her father Alex (Guy Pearce) and his new girlfriend Kim (Katie Holmes) at the 19th-century mansion they are restoring. While exploring the sprawling estate, the young girl discovers a hidden basement, undisturbed since the strange disappearance of the mansion's builder a century ago. When Sally unwittingly lets loose a race of ancient, dark-dwelling creatures who conspire to drag her down into the mysterious house's bottomless depths, she must convince Alex and Kim that it's not a fantasy—before the evil lurking in the dark consumes them all.

"Don't Be Afraid Of The Dark" opens nationwide Friday, August 26th.
