IN THE HIT DISNEY CHANNEL COMEDY SERIES
SHAKE IT UP
WITH A MEMORABILIA DONATION AT
PLANET HOLLYWOOD TIMES SQUARE
~ FRIDAY, AUGUST 5TH AT 10:30 AM ~

WHO: Kenton Duty currently stars as 'Gunther Hessenheffer' in the Disney Channel comedy series "Shake It Up."

Duty was most recently seen as the young Jacob in ABC's hit series "Lost." His other television credits include a guest-starring role on "Cold Case," a starring role in the Lifetime television movie "Christmas in Paradise," appearances on both "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno" and "The Jay Leno Show" in multiple skits, and a starring role as Young Ben in NBC's comedy web series "Ctrl," among others.

On the big screen, Duty appeared as Jeanne Tripplehorn's son in the Tim Allen-directed feature film "Crazy on the Outside." In addition, Kenton had a supporting role in the overseas hit motion picture, "My Name is Kahn."

A busy commercial and voice-over actor, Duty has appeared in numerous national commercials for McDonalds, Wal-Mart, Pizza Hut and Mattel.

Kenton will join the cast of Broadway's "Mary Poppins" in the role of chimney sweeper, for one night only, on Thursday, August 4th.

WHAT: Kenton Duty will be at Planet Hollywood Times Square to promote his starring role in the Disney Channel comedy series "Shake It Up" with a memorabilia donation in the main dining room.

"Shake It Up" - "Shake It Up" is a buddy-comedy series that introduces two high-spirited girls, best friends CeCe Jones and Raquel 'Rocky' Blue, whose dreams of becoming professional dancers are realized when they become background dancers on the most popular teen dance show, "Shake it Up, Chicago!," a job they land thanks to their longtime and well-connected friend Deuce. Between learning new dance styles, navigating the backstage antics at the show (especially with their rivals Gunther and Tinka) and their newfound social status at school, the girls are on their way to new and fun adventures, some that will test their friendship.
